

NOTICE

Attention is drawn to all the students of this college that Study Materials of different Programmes will be made avail in the College Website in Students Corner Menu.

As we all remain under complete lockdown situation, so they are asked to visit the college website for going through the Study Materials meticulously.

There are also advised to attend the on-line classes undertaken by different faculties of our college. As we all in an unprecedented situation, all are wished to stay safe and stay at home and available the alternative arrangement of study offered by the college.

Principal