A. Objectives

The Parties shall explore opportunities for collaboration, which may include, but are not limited to:

- Academic collaboration as co-host/partner in seminar/workshop/conference hosting, guest-editing special issues, and launching new journals by the Parties.
- Faculty/students exchange as determined by the areas of expertise
- Exchange of information on research and educational programmes
- Jointly organizing short-term continuing education programmes on topic of mutual interest and inviting each other’s faculty to participate therein.
- Jointly engagement in research or training programmes sponsored by funding agencies
- Exchanging, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate level for limited periods of time for the purpose of education and /or research.

B. Scope and Obligations

- No financial obligation is there at this stage for collaboration. Any financial collaborating project is optional.
- Prior to initiating any joint program or project, the Parties shall enter into a Sub-Agreement setting forth the specific details of the proposed program or project. Each such Sub-Agreement, prior to becoming effective, shall be vetted in accordance with each Party’s internal policies and procedures and signed by an authorized representative of each Party.
- By virtue of this Agreement any department or wing of the Parties can enter into Sub-agreement in any academic and technical project through a Sub-Agreement. Each Sub-Agreement shall identify the academic units and personnel involved, the duration of the program or project, and the source of any funding required for the program or project. The Parties acknowledge and agree that any such program or project must be
